Telugu Hindu Wedding Ceremony

Sunday, November 29, 2026

A traditional Telugu Hindu wedding, originating from the Indian states of Andhra Pradesh and Telangana, is a beautiful celebration filled with meaningful rituals and symbolism. Conducted primarily in Sanskrit and Telugu by priests, these ceremonies bring together two individuals, two families, and two life journeys.

Each ritual represents an important value in married life, including love, commitment, mutual respect, prosperity, and the blessings of family and elders.

Key Moments of the Ceremony

9:40 AM - Guests requested to start seating in the ballroom

10:00 AM – Edurukolu (Welcoming the Groom)

The bride's family formally welcomes the groom and his family, symbolizing the beginning of the union between the two families.

10:15 AM – Groom's Entry to the Mandapam

The groom enters the wedding mandapam, where the sacred wedding ceremony will take place.

10:30–10:50 AM – Ganapathi Pooja and Navagraha Pooja

The priests perform prayers to Lord Ganesha, seeking blessings for an auspicious and obstacle-free ceremony. Navagraha Pooja follows, invoking the blessings of the nine celestial influences for harmony and prosperity.

10:50 AM – Bride's Entry to the Mandapam

The bride makes her ceremonial entrance to the mandapam, marking the beginning of the central wedding rituals.

Kanyadanam

In this sacred ritual, the bride's parents formally offer their daughter's hand in marriage to the groom. They place her hand in his, symbolizing their trust and blessings as she begins a new chapter in her life. The groom accepts the responsibility of sharing a lifelong partnership built on love, respect, and mutual understanding. Kanyadanam represents the joining of two families and the blessings of the bride's parents for the couple's future together.

11:15 AM – Jeelakarra Bellam (The Auspicious Union)

At the auspicious wedding moment (Muhurtam), the bride and groom place a paste made from cumin seeds (jeelakarra) and jaggery (bellam) on each other's heads. Just as these ingredients blend together, this ritual symbolizes their inseparable bond and their promise to share life's sweet and challenging moments.

Mangalsutra Dharana (Tying the Sacred Necklace)

The groom ties the mangalsutra, a sacred necklace, around the bride's neck. This is one of the most significant moments of the wedding, representing their lifelong commitment to one another.

Talambralu (Showering of Blessings)

The couple showers each other with rice mixed with turmeric, symbolizing prosperity, happiness, and abundance. This joyful ritual often brings smiles and laughter as family members join in the celebration.

Saptapadi (The Seven Sacred Steps)

The bride and groom take seven symbolic steps together, representing promises of friendship, love, family, prosperity, and mutual respect. These seven steps establish the foundation for their journey through married life.

Arundhati Nakshatram (The Star of Fidelity)

The couple is guided to observe Arundhati and Vashistha, a revered pair of stars in Hindu tradition. Arundhati symbolizes devotion, wisdom, and equality in marriage. By viewing these stars together, the couple is reminded of the importance of mutual respect, partnership, and steadfast commitment.

Blessings from Family and Friends

The ceremony concludes with blessings from elders, family, and friends, who wish the newlyweds a lifetime of happiness, good health, love, and prosperity.

Lunch follows